MISS KEANE'S WEEKLY BOOK REVIEW

Each week we would like to share with you books we have enjoyed for you to read with your children at home. Sometimes these reviews will be from the children themselves!

It was a night for telling ghost stories. 'A tale to freeze the blood,' was the only rule. Switzerland, 1816. On a stormy night, Lord Byron and his guests are gathered round the fire. Felix, their serving boy, can't wait to hear their creepy tales. Yet real life is about to take a chilling turn - more chilling than any tale. Frantic pounding at the front door reveals a stranger, a girl covered in the most unusual scars. She claims to be looking for her sister, supposedly snatched from England. Someone else has followed her here too, she says. And the girl is terrified. If you like a spooky page turner, then this book is for you! Strange Star by Emma Carroll is a story of bravery, storytelling and wonder. This creepy tale is inspired by the story of Frankenstein - this book is on all UKS2 bookshelves or see Miss Keane to locate a copy.
